

1. The day of the Lord will come like a _____ in the _____.
2. In verse 3 what will be the perception of the people before the day of the Lord?
3. What will this destruction be likened to when it occurs?
4. With the understanding of the process of a woman in labor, what can we learn about the coming of the day of the Lord?
5. In verses 4-10 underline the word you and circle the words we and us.
In boxes below list what you observe about each:

you	We/ us

6. In verses 6 and 7 there is a reference about those who “sleep”. What point do you think Paul is making in these verses?
7. From verses 12-22 make a list of what Paul asks and urges them to do. Circle any that stand out to you personally. Share with your group why these behaviors are important.
8. In verse 23 what do you learn about the coming of our Lord?
9. What does Paul want them to do with this letter? Verse 27