FROM THE DESK OF John Maurer

Mark 4:35-41 Whenever chaos or danger appears imminent, our concern is not how big the problem seems but whether God is with us or not. The disciples learned this lesson when a storm threatened to take their lives on the Sea of Galilee. Jesus commanded the storm to be still and peace was restored. They learned that having Jesus with them was more important than the storm that was against them. Are you facing trouble, storms, opposition, discouragement? Instead of praying for God to remove them, first pray for a deeper awareness of the peace that comes from His presence. If chaos is threatening your peace, let Jesus be your ark of safety in the storm. He can bring peace in any storm. He is always with you!
